Introduction

This teamwork contract outlines the agreed-upon expectations, responsibilities, and guidelines for effective collaboration among the members of Team 5. By adhering to this contract, we aim to foster a productive, respectful, and supportive team environment conducive to the success of our project.

Team Expectations

In this section, the team will discuss and clearly define their collective expectations in various key areas. Be specific to ensure mutual understanding.

1. Participation (Engagement and Effort in the Project)

- Expectation: Each team member is expected to:
 - Actively participate in all team meetings and discussions.
 - Engage fully in project activities and contribute ideas.
 - Notify the team in advance if unable to attend a meeting or meet an obligation.

2. Contribution (Progress on the Project)

- Expectation: Each team member is expected to:
 - Complete assigned tasks diligently and on time.
 - Contribute equal effort to the project's progress.
 - Share expertise and assist others when needed.
 - Be willing (when able) to cover for others when workload allows.

3. Communication

- Expectation: Team communication should be:
 - Professional, respectful, and considerate.
 - Conducted through agreed-upon channels (email, group chat)
 - Responsive, with replies to inquiries within 24 hours on weekdays.
 - Informing team members of any substantial changes to project area of work is expected to happen as soon as possible (preferably within 24 hrs).

4. Meetings

- Expectation: Regarding team meetings:
 - Frequency: The team will meet [once a week Mon or Wed at 4 PM till 4:50 PM, but can change as needed].
 - Attendance: Members are expected to attend all meetings; absences should be communicated in advance.
 - Preparation: Members should come prepared to give an account of work completed (or not) from the past week, having completed any agreed-upon tasks or research.
 - Odd times: No weekend or break meetings under any circumstances.
 - Agenda: Project updates from each member and any other topics requested at least 24 hrs in advance. The rest will go as it will.

5. Conduct

- Expectation: Team members will:
 - Treat each other with respect and courtesy if possible.

- Listen actively and allow others to express their ideas without interruption.
- Address disagreements professionally and constructively.

6. Conflict Resolution

- Expectation: The team will:
 - Address conflicts promptly through open dialogue.
 - All decisions will be voted on by all members. No member can abstain from voting unless they are not present. All ties and non-sensitive decisions will be made by the lead or by deputy when not present.
 - Use a step-by-step approach to resolve issues:
 - a. Discuss the issue privately between involved parties.
 - b. If unresolved, bring the issue to the team for discussion.
 - c. Seek input from the instructor if necessary.
 - Focus on finding mutually acceptable solutions.

7. Deadlines

- Expectation: Regarding deadlines:
 - All team-set and instructor-set deadlines are to be met.
 - If a member anticipates difficulty meeting a deadline, they must inform the team as soon as possible.
 - The team will collaboratively adjust workloads to ensure project timelines are maintained.

Unique Roles

Assigning specific roles can help streamline team operations. Below, define any unique roles, their responsibilities, the powers granted, and any changes to expectations.

a. Team Leader/Coordinator: (John Pacek)

- Responsibilities:
 - Schedule and coordinate team meetings.
 - Coordinate meetings to ensure agenda is met.
 - Facilitate meetings to ensure all voices are heard.
 - Monitor project timelines and milestones.
- Powers Granted:

- Authority to make minor decisions to keep the project on track after team consultation.
- Ability to delegate tasks and responsibilities for team members.
- May assign deputy lead as needed.
- Expectation Changes:
 - In addition to regular duties, the Team Leader will handle organizational tasks but remains equally responsible for project work.

b. Recorder/Secretary: (Role will float as needed)

- Responsibilities:
 - Take detailed notes during meetings.
 - Distribute meeting minutes to all team members within 24 hours.
- Powers Granted:
 - May request clarifications during meetings to ensure accurate record-keeping.
- Expectation Changes:
 - Ensures documentation is maintained without reducing their responsibility in other project areas.

Additional Agreements

Documentation must be adequate and up to date, with respect to each team member's duties.
